Orientation Internship at the University of Bremen for teaching at primary schools

Framework conditions for the Orientation Internship: practical part in school

- Internship duration of at least 6 weeks
- Supervision by a trained teacher (mentor)
- Presence in the school for 90 hours (observation, testing in standard situations, work shadowing)
- Further 30 hours of extracurricular activities (participation in conferences, teamwork, meetings with parents, etc.)
- Special case: Students with a focus on elementary education complete their internship for 3 weeks at a school and 3 weeks at a day-care centre/kindergarten. The hours to be completed (90 + 30) are divided equally between school and day-care centre/kindergarten.
- Teaching activities are not part of the Orientation Internship.
- Confirmation of the successful completion of the internship by the school: after completing the internship, the students receive a certificate from the school in which their performance and development progress during the school internship are assessed.

The Orientation Internship abroad is integrated into the teacher training curriculum at the University of Bremen through preparatory and follow-up events as well as virtual support formats.
